I grow old . . . I grow old . . .
I shall wear the bottoms of my trousers rolled.
Shall I part my hair behind? Do I dare to eat a peach?

"Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence . . . Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent . . . Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Enthusiasm is the electricity of life. How do you get it? You act enthusiastic until you make it a habit.
Enthusiasm is natural; it is being alive, taking the initiative, seeing the importance of what you do, giving it dignity and making what you do important to yourself and to others.

JUNIOR DAD'S DAY 1981

"How do you thank them for the way their love has enriched your life? That's hard. Perhaps one way is simply to tell them." In our case, we not only told them, but we shared a fabulous weekend that will be remembered by the class of 1983 as well as by friends and family forever. The weekend illustrated a closeness our class shares and that is recognized by the entire MBC community. To the class of '83, thanks for making it so GREAT!

CLASS SONG

We're the class of '85.
Parties start when we arrive,
Beer and booze keep us alive,
Stick together to survive.
Roading here & roading there,
We make parties everywhere.
Gorgeous guys, we're their bait;
Always calling for a date.
Guys come over for a raid,
Ain't no fear, we've got it made.
We're the class of '85.
1-9-8-5, Hey!
Drink to survive.
1-9-8-5-, Hey!
We'll never die!

EDITOR'S NOTE

I have just finished the last deadline. Before I turn in for a greatly needed rest, there are a number of people I owe thanks to for their continued hard work and support. Mainly, I owe a big THANK YOU to my editors who never stopped, worked all night for a deadline, and spent hours in the darkroom working to get the right picture.

Beard — Get on with your bad self!
Boyer — Hey, D - E - B - B - I - E !
Cameron — What's up, Doc?
Keely — KILLER!
Shufelt — How's your dawg?

Best of luck to Lisa and 1983 Bluestocking staff. I hope the budget axe only nics! Thanks to the Administrative Offices who continued to work with us — Bertie, Billie and Business Office; Registrar's; Computer Center, Information & Publications, Dean Olds, Sandy and the Dean of Students Office; Rosalind Howell and the Physical Plant; ADP, the Bookstore and Security — especially for the late night heat. A special thank you to our Advisor, Lucy Thayer.

There are four very special friends I must thank — Joy, Peg, Roz and Ann. THANKS GUYS for everything, but especially for giving me a chance and believing in me.

When you look through the book, I hope you see all that is unique to the MBC community — for Baldwin is a special place to be. Best of luck to the '83 Executive Committee and to the Class of 1982. To the Class of 1983, you will be Seniors at the date of this publication and that means it will be your last year, so enjoy. To you Freshmen, it is the start of a beautiful four years — whether you realize it now or not.
